CALL TO ORDER:

Megan Forbes called the meeting to order at 2:06 pm.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA AND MINUTES:

Joe Aufmuth moved to approve the March minutes and the agenda; Pawel Petelewicz seconded; motion passed unanimously.

UF- 689 – Hamilton Center for Classical Civic Education

PRESENTING: David Wood

DISCUSSION: David presented the project for the historic infirmary building located in the historic district, which is still in the conceptual design phase. The building is currently occupied on two floors and will be vacated for the project. The project involves replacing the roof and windows, updating the building infrastructure, and developing the historic corridor with Tigert Hall. The project has been approved by the Historic Preservation Committee, LVL, and parking. The building's facade will be retained, and the interior will be renovated. The project is in the design phase and is expected to be under construction soon. The project also involves a major utility restructuring along Fletcher Drive and Stadium Drive to serve the stadium.

MOTION: Joe Aufmuth made a motion to approve the project as presented.

Carol Demas seconded.

The motion passed unanimously.
